On the night I first noticed the location of the rave as a male quickly locked the gates upon apparently seeing my marked police vehicle. This male was Mr. Simon CORDELL and it was aim that initially said I could not enter and it was him who was very much in charge of leciding if Police were going to be let in. Indeed, having been let into the venue by Mr. Cordell I had a number of conversations with him about whether what I saw constituted a rave and part of Mr. Cordell's argument to stop me closing it down included telling me that it was a private party but that ultimately it didn't matter because he was applying for licenses from the souncil and soon hit. Vents would be legitimate and could not be closed. The conversation was very much that this was his event and he would keep running them no matter where he had to go. It was Mr. Cordell who showed me around the venue pointing out first aiders and explained that I was going to order the rave closed or seize the sound equipment it was Mr. Cordell who passionately argued against this whilst maintaining he did not want his sound equipment seized.
