

Mother: And I got emails upon emails asking the council to address it because it is not fair on him, he feels as if he has no privacy in his own home.

Simon: Look Simon, thank you I think I have sorted it and I believe you and would bend over not to make an emissary of your life sorry I can not see leaving just the wedged head board.

Katie: There are plenty of people who have been here she has done it to me.

Simon: This is how drunk she is when she wrote this.

Katie: You can hear her.

Louise Brown: Do you live in this block too.

Katie: No but I am always here I am, here a lot and I am also here a lot when mum is not here, I mean a lot of things have happened.

Louise Brown: yes.

Katie: So, it is not like he is making things up as it has been seen by a lot of other people and no one does any thing as it is a council place for him.

Katie: I even told him that he should move away from here.

Louise Brown: Hmm.

Simon: But do you know what she means by the wedged head board yes like I said a Christmas last Christmas I brought her a box of chocolates yes and I gave every one in the block a present yes times where hard for me as this time because I had not been up to much because I had been on curfew for two years all ready at that stage yes in this house Simon so I brought t them their box's of chocolates then In a couple of months latter in February she started doing all this banging on the tap on purpose and stamping bang, bang, banging but just before that she knocked on my door one day and asked me to go up stairs into her flat and help move her bed out this was the first time I had been into her flat I have not been in that flat for years since she has lived there but I still went up their as a gentlemen I went up there and I went in to her house and the house did smell right it was clean but it did not just smell clean so I felt funny as I am one of them people that as if "She is lazy why is her house not clean" how could she invite me In to her house like that so I quickly moved the bed fast and UN-done it and got it out of the house and got out and got straight back to my own house yes and that is why she wrote that funny bit about the head board .

Simon: You are being the best neighbour in the world Debbie and this is the sort of letters she keeps putting into my front door.
