regulate it. There was about 30 people in so in discussion Mr CORDELL was told it was an illegal rave and I would be seeking Supt authority to seize the sound equipment. Mr CORDELL began to pack away his equipment stating it was a birthday party only but he was going. Whilst stood waiting for him to leave a group of about 100 teenagers turned up on mass and immediately became confrontational stating there were going to storm the rave. As we had good numbers the group initially dispersed but tried to go via a back entrance to the venue which led to arrests when scuffles with Police started. The group the completely moved off but returned about 20 minutes later in even bigger numbers. The situation quickly escalated as the group started throwing cones and general road furniture towards Police. Luckily dogs were on hand and the crowd was dispersed after numerous missiles were thrown at Police and a number of arrests were made. The group then hung around and got on trains only to try and enter Progress Way and the previous rave site. It was only large numbers of TSG that prevented the group forcing their way in. Again, Simon CORDELL and his silver Focus were present. Eventually, the group began to move off. The net result was at least 4 arrested for various public order and one officer injured who may required a stitch or two to his arm. Simon CORDELL's attitude is that he is a modern day business man and the actions of the group had nothing to do with him. It was fortunate more officers were not injured.

2. On 27th July 2014, Police drove down MILLMARSH LANE, ENFIELD, because information had been received that a rave would be taking place that evening. Police drove down and found the rave, which was on a piece of land between Greggs and Pugh Charles Glass. This appeared to be a driveway that was over grown, but had a gate on it, which people at the rave had the key for. Police spoke to the people inside and they did not know if they had any first aiders there and they said that they had one fire extinguisher on the site. The people there let police in and there was no alcohol there, but they had water to drink. The rave was outside on open land. There was a big stack of speakers which was being powered by a van belonging to Simon CORDELL. Police saw the van drive out with Simon CORDELL driving it. The rave was a 20th birthday party for one of the people there. The rave was organised by Simon CORDELL and was connected to another rave on ALMA ROAD.
