On Saturday the 19th July 2014 I was on duty employed as the Duty Officer for Enfield Borough. At about 2210hrs a call came in stating that there were about 20 persons pulling into an estate and the informant thought they were trying to set up a rave. The crowd were by an empty building called Carpet Right and had actually gained entry to the rear of the premises. I instructed officers to go to the venue and try to stop anyone else gaining entry to the premises. I made my way to the scene. There was a metal gate across the entry to the car park but this had a thick chain and a padlock around it so that it could not be opened. I walked to the rear of the premises where there were several vehicles and about 15 persons. I saw large black boxes which had speakers and sound systems inside them. I received a call from our control room stating they believed up to 100 persons were going to arrive at Southbury Road train station to attend a rave at this location. As a result of this intelligence I believed that the premises were going to be used for a rave.

I saw a male I knew to be Simon Cordell who came out of the building. I have known Cordell for over 20 years. I had previously dealt with him at a rave on the 7th of June which he organised in Progress Way Enfield which lasted for several days. I spoke to him at that rave during the morning as police had received numerous complaints re the noise over a twenty four hour period. Groups of youths from this rave were also committing mass shoplifting offences from the petrol station opposite, as a result of these offences the petrol station had to close its shop. Several buildings on the industrial estate were also damaged and thousand of pounds of damage were caused.

Outside Carpet Right I spoke to Cordell. He admitted that he was just organising a party for some friends and that was all. I explained to him that we were expecting 100 plus people to turn up at Southbury Road and to be told where the rave was happening. I explained to him that as the organiser of this rave I was holding him responsible. I then received a call stating that large numbers of youths were arriving in Southbury Road.
