RESTRICTED (when complete)

Variation No

Station Wood Green Police Station Surname and initials CORDELL S.  NOTES  The applicable bail period (ABP), initially means the period of 28 days beginning the day after the person's arrest. There are cay where this may be extended to three months beginning with the person's bail start date on the authority of a senior officer. If the investigation is being conducted by the Serious Fraud Office then the initial ABP will be three months.  Further extensions to the ABP can be authorised by a magistrate's court, or if the case is exceptionally complex by a senior polic officer.  Your initial ABP ends on NOTES  The applicable bail period (ABP), initially means the period of 28 days beginning the day after the person's arrest. There are ca where this may be extended to three months beginning with the person's bail start date on the authority of a senior officer. If the investigation is being conducted by the Serious Fraud Office then the initial ABP will be three months.  Further extensions to the ABP can be authorised by a magistrate's court, or if the case is exceptionally complex by a senior polic officer.  Your initial ABP ends on NOTES  The applicable bail period (ABP), initially means the period of 28 days beginning the day after the person's arrest. There are cawhere this may be extended to three months beginning with the person's bail start date on the authority of a senior officer. If the investigation is being conducted by the Serious Fraud Office then the initial ABP will be three months.  Further extensions to the ABP can be authorised by a magistrate's court, or if the case is exceptionally complex by a senior polic officer.  Your initial ABP ends on The applicable bail period (ABP), initially means the period of 28 days beginning the day after the person's arrest. There are cawhere this may be extended to three months beginning with the person's bail start date on the authority of a senior officer. If the investigation is being conducted by the Serious Fraud Office then the initial ABP will be three months.  Further extensions to the ABP can be authorised by a magistrate's court, or if the case is exceptionally complex by a senior polic officer.  Your initial ABP ends on where this may be extended to three months beginning with the person's bail start date on the authority of a senior officer. If the investigation is being conducted by the Serious Fraud Office then the initial ABP will be three months.  Further extensions to the ABP can be authorised by a magistrate's court, or if the case is exceptionally complex by a senior polic officer.  Your initial ABP ends on Your initial ABP ends on should ensure that you attend on the date/time shown above.  The ABP is suspended if the case is submitted to CPS for a charging decision until the date of its return. The ABP will be extend by the amount of days that the case was with the CPS.  You will be informed in writing if your ABP or bail date is amended.  A person is normally bailed for 28 days; however a custody officer can set a different or additional time at which the person is to attend the police station to answer bail.  Your bail date has been varied (choose those applicable)  • To align with another bail return date as the person is already on pre-charge bail for another offence.  • The custody sergeant feels an earlier charging decision is likely by the amount of days that the case was with the CPS.  You will be informed in writing if your ABP or bail date is amended.  A person is normally bailed for 28 days; however a custody officer can set a different or additional time at which the person is to attend the police station to answer bail.  Your bail date has been varied (choose those applicable)  • To align with another bail return date as the person is already on pre-charge bail for another offence.  • The custody sergeant feels an earlier charging decision is likely A person is normally bailed for 28 days; however a custody officer can set a different or additional time at which the person is to attend the police station to answer bail.  Your bail date has been varied (choose those applicable)  • To align with another bail return date as the person is already on pre-charge bail for another offence.  • The custody sergeant feels an earlier charging decision is likely attend the police station to answer bail.  Your bail date has been varied (choose those applicable)  • To align with another bail return date as the person is already on pre-charge bail for another offence.  • The custody sergeant feels an earlier charging decision is likely <ul> <li>To align with another bail return date as the person is already on pre-charge bail for another offence.</li> <li>The custody sergeant feels an earlier charging decision is likely</li> </ul>
Signed Signed (appropriate adult)
Officer in case Surname SEFIL Rank/Job title PC No. P235331
Station Enfield Borough
Officer Granting Bail Surname ROSS Rank PS No. P199321

For variations: If bail is unconditional enter "all previous conditions cancelled, released on unconditional bail" If surety or security is changed enter "surety/security changed" and complete MG4C.

23:42

Date

15/03/2018

Time