It is said that on 25.05.14 Mr Simon Cordell was involved in the organization of and / or supplied equipment for and or attended an illegal rave at unit 5, St George's Industrial Estate, Whit Heart Lane,

Mr Simon Cordell will state; "that he did not attended any premises on this date to rave neither was her involved in the organization off any raves, nor did he supply equipment for an illegal rave at unit 5, St George's Industrial Estate, White Heart Lane, N17.

In respect of Mr Simon Cordell presence at Unit 5 St George's Industrial Estate, White Hart Lane on 25th May 2014. He attended a commercial building that the occupiers were residing in, having displayed section 144 LASPO notices and in turn treating the premises as their home. Nothing was said to Mr Simon Cordell about a rave by any of the 20 occupiers. He will state that he was visiting friends and they were just sitting and chatting while having a laugh. He remembers taking about ways to better life for him self and his friends as well as others.

There was no music being played or about to be set up. He was not involved in the organization of an illegal rave of any sort no Acts of the licensing Bill 2013 was being broken.

Mr Cordell will state; "have used the speaker box's to play sound, he did ask the police too note this down, and that he was only using the van as storage, this is why the police officers who were in attendance allowed him to leave, while talking to the current occupiers of the premises." "that he did drive there in his van VRM CX52JRZ, and he does accept that he had 2 speaker boxes in the van; however, he did not have a full sound system present with him self and the speaker boxes did not have any drivers in them, so he and others could not

Mr Simon Cordell will state; "that he did not on the date in question have what would constitute as a full sound system like what he accused of and is now being pursued by the applicant. Mr Simon Cordell will state that he was not rude to the police, that he allowed his van to be searched by members of the police and nothing was seized, and He went home. Mr Cordell will state that he did not cause any anti social behaviour on the 25th May 2014 or any other behaviour that might have caused alarm harm or distress to others."

Since this ASBO application was served on Mr Simon Cordell, he has moved the speakers out of his van and they are still in the (open air), at his mothers address and are in the back garden still to date, as if in the first day that off when he had taken them out of his van, with no drivers in them because he felt uncomfortable ball because of the terms of the ASBO application. Mr Simon Cordell states yes at the time it would have been better to keep them in his van due to the weather, but when he does intend to go for a drive that he does not feel safe any longer travelling with any sound equipment.

It is also noted that on page (98 of the main applicants bundle) that the report was created on the 26/05/2014 for criminal damage, the event date, is noted at:

25/05/2014, but was last updated on the 19/06/2014 why would there be a need to update this report, Mr Cordell will state that it was proven that he did nothing on the CCTV.
