

My mother got upset at hearing what the lady said to her on the phone, and as a consequence she explained to the lady that she wanted for her to arrange a manager and surveyor to come to the flat and that this must happen within the next few days from then on, so to re-analyse the situation then in hand by the complaint departments reasonable persons, and my mother continued her conversation by expressing; if she had to she would lift the rest of the flooring up in my flat to prove the pipe work was all in place and show that the rest including the bedroom and bathroom were still there.

At this the lady explained while still on the phone that there is no need for what my mother told her to happen and that the council will replace the heating system, but the problems did not stop for me there again and as a continuation the Enfield Council employees then sent the surveyors out to my flat to oversee and then order to replace the heating system but survivors or council employees had told the sub-contractors that I had removed all the pipe work, to the point no one wanted to come out and do the work. The sub-contractor was very shocked to see all the pipework pipe-work still in place and also said that he is glad that he meet me, and saw the truth himself.
