Good afternoon

Thank you for your email of 1 August 2019; the Council's solicitors have provided the attached letters and have stated that "there were no letters to the court on 10/6/2019 and 12/6/2019".

I confirm that the letters do not contain anything of concern to our client.

Kind regards

Dear Sir / Madam,

Re: Claim No: FOOED222

The London Borough of Enfield v Simon Cordell

Claim for Possession of 109 Burncroft Avenue, Enfield EN3 7JQ

We refer to the Order made by District Judge Davies dated the 8 March 2019 adjourning the proceedings. We write to request that the proceedings be now restored. The Official Solicitor has responded to the request to act as Litigation Friend to the Defendant advising that they will not so act instead the Defendant mother Mrs Cordell will act as Litigation Friend to the Defendant.

Yours faithfully,

Paul Buckridge,
Solicitor

Dear Sir / Madam,

Re: Claim No: FOED222
The London Borough of Enfield v Simon Cordell
Claim for Possession of 109 Burncroft Avenue, Enfield EN3 7JQ

We refer to the Order made by Deputy District Judge Harris dated 18 June 2019 that the Claimant Claim stand struck out.

We respectfully ask that this order of Deputy District Judge Harris be set aside as a letter dated 6 June was sent by post and emailed to the Court requesting that the matter be restored. The Court was telephoned yesterday, and it was confirmed that the Claimant letter was received and was not taken account of when the matter came before Deputy District Judge Harris. For convenience we provide a copy of said letter sent.

Yours faithfully,

Paul Buckridge,
