

S Cordell

On Friday, 23 May 2014, 17:25, Chris Garvin <cgarvin@accidentexchange.com> wrote:

Mr.Cordell,

I have today emailed your Insurer advising I am seeking to re-direct the matter to Mr.Harris as I am satisfied you have no involvement in the matter.

Kind regards,
Chris

---

From: Rewired Rewired [mailto:re\_wired@ymail.com]

Sent: 23 May 2014 17:07

To: Chris Garvin

Subject: Re: Our ref: A27/190530 AX REF - 403050

To Chris Garvin

Thank you for your recent correspondence on the phone and by email on the 22/05/2014

Please see attached proof of the sale of the index incident vehicle, CX52 JRZ.

Could you please now let my insurance company KGM know that this matter has now been fully re-direct to Mr.Harris and that you can now completely discount my insurance from your enquiries, i would be very grateful if this can be done so that KGM can give me my no claims back.

Regards

S Cordell

On Thursday, 22 May 2014, 16:35, Rewired Rewired <re\_wired@ymail.com> wrote:

On Thursday, 22 May 2014, 12:23, Chris Garvin <cgarvin@accidentexchange.com> wrote:

To whom this may concern,

Thank you for your recent correspondence.

Please be advised that we have sought to re-direct our claim to Mr.Harris as previously requested. However, to date we have received no positive contact from Mr.Harris thus investigators have been appointed.