Hi peter

Great to hear you had a good holiday and yes it is hard to get back into things once you come back from holiday.

I was thinking you was aware there were more then one case, There was 1 were the police officer lied, but then due to all the seizures for no insurance I think there was 5 cases were we did not get the summons they went to court and he was found guilty for no insurance as he did not know. We have been dealing with these cases for a while with the courts. The ones we got the summons for was all fine. To me it is silly the way in which the system works it's a waste of tax payer's money, as you would think when he went to the police compound they would note he did in fact have insurance and then that would be it but nope.

2 have been a nightmare's to deal with as the courts did not send dates out the amount of emails I have sent is a joke I have even had to put complaints into the court which really I should have not needed to do.

When I had to get the solicitors involved with the one were the police officer lied she had to attend my home to get all the data for it.

I showed her about the other cases and all the emails she could not believe her eyes and what we were going through she is helping me with the last 2 cases. It really has been a nightmare you would never want to have to deal with this. Simon Driving licence is in a mess that's why I had to get DVLA involved.

And the worse part is he was insured did nothing wrong but due to the MID database error has had so many problems I think the worse part is not being able to drive and knowing you should be able to and having to pay for insurance you cant even use, not being able to work due to needing to be able to drive.

Hi Lorraine,

Fantastic holiday thanks, really great time, went by far too quickly and now its back to normal, took me a while to get my head back in the game I must say.

I didn't realise there was more than 1 court case! This is going to take some time to sort out but I'm glad to hear you got the right result on the recent case.

I guess all I can say for the moment is let me know how things go and of course I will respond again after I have received and considered details of the Police stops/vehicle seizures we are waiting on.

All the best.

Regards
