

But I also asked Kelly Tiller did the police tell her what tools was meant to be in my van, to which she said no. KGM was not even aware I had mechanics trade on my policy so if my mechanics tools had been in my van at the time my insurance would still have been cancelled which to me what was the point in having insurance?

I then spoke to a wonderful operator at the police when I called told her what had gone on and was told by her to go to the police compound as when any vehicles are taken there they have to do a full list of items that are in the vehicles as they are in fact legible if something goes missing. Over that weekend I sent emails to the compound and forwarded them to Broadsure as my insurance was due to be cancelled on the Monday. On Monday I got an email from Broadsure direct asking me to go to the compound as Kelly Tiller had no luck getting a reply from them also, and once there to call Kelly Tiller due to the time on the Monday I got the email it would have been to late to go the compound and get a call to Kelly Tiller as she would have ended work for that day so I sent an email saying I would be going there early the next morning.

I went the next day and asked to speak to the manger of the compound who in fact looked up my van and said nothing was in there, there was not tools I called Kelly Tiller and the manager of the compound spoke to her and confirmed there was nothing in the van when it was taken there by police and that I had put thing in the van when I had taken it out of the compound.

At this point Kelly tiller believed me and said the policy would not be cancelled. But on my way back from the compound driving my phone ring and I stopped to pick it up and it was Broadsure direct saying my policy had in fact been cancelled I was very upset at this and told them what had happened, I was asked to hold on they was called KGM back and would call me right back. I waited till Broadsure direct called me back and confirmed my insurance policy had not been cancelled then drove home.

From this point I have been asking for all information and putting data protection acts in which have not been dealt with and I have heard nothing from KGM.

I have been back and forward to court due to no insurance and in fact 4 cases I did not get any summons so was in fact found guilty as I did not know it was even going to court.

I have had points put on my driving licence for no reason and had to go back and forward to court many times when this should not have been the case.

Then the case come up for the seizer when the police said I had tools in my van I went to court with all my documents but due to not having the information I had asked for from KGM many times about that case I was found guilty. I am very upset about the whole policy with KGM. I have put an appeal in and this case will be going to crown court I have again asked for information and again heard nothing. These matters need to be addressed as I am suffering due to all of this.

Martin Jenkins at Broadsure Direct knows everything that has gone on as he was my main contact.

I also have all the emails the last one that I will enclose again, which I have heard nothing about and the 1st Subject access request under the Data Protection Act 1998 that I sent on the 26/11/2013. I did in fact send the Subject access request under the Data Protection Act 1998 about time times and asked Martin Jenkins to look into why I had heard nothing about more then once.

Once I get the appeal date for crown court I will ask the court to summons the people at KGM to deal with this matter as they know I was insurance and did nothing wrong and the police lied. All I have asked for is the data so there will be no need to summons people this way I can send the section 9 witness statements over to the crown and the other information and this case should be dropped
