

duty so I could not speak to them and Kelly Tiller was saying unless I could prove I did not have any tools in my van then the insurance policy would be cancelled which was very unfair as I had done nothing wrong I new I never had any tools.

But I also asked Kelly Tiller did the police tell her what tools was meant to be in my van, to which she said no. KGM was not even aware I had mechanics trade on my policy so if my mechanics tools had been in my van at the time my insurance would still have been cancelled which to me what was the point in having insurance?

I then spoke to a wonderful operator at the police when I called told her what had gone on and was told by her to go to the police compound as when any vehicles are taken there they have to do a full list of items that are in the vehicles as they are in fact legible if something goes missing. Over that weekend I sent emails to the compound and forwarded them to Broadsure as my insurance was due to be cancelled on the Monday. On Monday I got an email from Broadsure direct asking me to go to the compound as Kelly Tiller had no luck getting a reply from them also, and once there to call Kelly Tiller due to the time on the Monday I got the email it would have been to late to go the compound and get a call to Kelly Tiller as she would have ended work for that day so I sent an email saying I would be going there early the next morning.

I went the next day and asked to speak to the manger of the compound who in fact looked up my van and said nothing was in there, there was not tools I called Kelly Tiller and the manager of the compound spoke to her and confirmed there was nothing in the van when it was taken there by police and that I had put thing in the van when I had taken it out of the compound.

At this point Kelly tiller believed me and said the policy would not be cancelled. But on my way back from the compound driving my phone ring and I stopped to pick it up and it was Broadsure direct saying my policy had in fact been cancelled I was very upset at this and told them what had happened, I was asked to hold on they was called KGM back and would call me right back. I waited till Broadsure direct called me back and confirmed my insurance policy had not been cancelled then drove home.

From this point I have been asking for all information and putting data protection acts in which have not been dealt with and I have heard nothing from KGM.
