

Officer Jason Ames States: He stated that it was a private "conference."

Mr Simon Cordell will state that he did say he had also gone to have a conference with his friends in regards to get the empty co2 gas cylinders he was carrying to be re filled as well as to attend to see his friends.

Officer Jason Ames States: He stated that there have been a few people camping on the land as they had no where to go. The people were in fact the occupiers of the land and building on the premises, who were at the gate on police arrival.

Officer Jason Ames States: He stated that they are having a few friends over for a private party.

Officer Jason Ames States: After persuasion Cordell allowed A/Insp King to gain entry to survey the area.

Officer Jason Ames States: Inside he could see around 20-30 people milling around, 2 small tents, a large set of speakers and sound system and a supply of bottled water. AT no point did I take part or organise a birthday party or a illegal rave or bring any equipment leading to a large sound system on said premises as it would not fit in my car Index MA57LDY a ford focus as mentioned in police statement for me to be driving on the 9th June 2014.

Officer Jason Ames States: Cordell was informed that the rave was going to be closed down and despite a slight resistance to this by him trying to quote legislation to us he agreed to pack up and leave. Yes when asked to leave by police.

Mr Simon Cordell will state that he did get into index Ma57Ldy and go home to his flat 109 Burncroft avenue Enfield to be he lives and reside every night.

Officer Jason Ames States: Cordell was informed that the rave was going to be closed down and despite a slight resistance to this by him trying to quote legislation to us he agreed to pack up and leave. "At no point would he go against police directions"

Officer Jason Ames States: He was reluctant but co-operated at this stage.

"Mr Simon Cordell will state that at no point would he go against police directions"

Officer Jason Ames States: The venue had more or less emptied but the organisers were still packing their equipment away.

"Mr Simon Cordell will state that at no point of time did he have any equipment in fact by this time he had left to go home but got detained by way of a police road block at the top of Millmarsh avenue soon to be realized with other members of the public.

Officer Jason Ames States: Approximately 100 people arrived in Millmarsh Lane at the same time.

Mr Simon Cordell will state that as stated at no point of time did he take part in organising any event on the 9th June 2014 he did in fact travel alone to attend a friends birthday party not an illegal rave as he is being accused of and at the point mentioned did he meet any of the people in question out of the 100 people or advise them to attend.

Officer Jason Ames States: This appeared odd to me that so many people turned up all at once.

Mr Simon Cordell will state that as stated above he was just attending a friend's birthday party not a illegal rave as suspected of it being.

Officer Jason Ames States: The crowd appeared to be angry at the fact that police had interrupted their evening and were shouting and advancing at officers.

Mr Simon Cordell will state that he did go to Millmarsh lane driving index MA57LDY in a silver ford focus on his own to attend a friends Birthday party. He has been to Millmarsh Lane before the date in question. His reason for this is he had been invited to do so at any time. Mr Simon Cordell will state that he had been invited to a birthday party at no point was he attending a illegal rave, neither at any point did he take part in the organisation of this birthday party or supply any equipment and that he was present only as a civil citizen up holding the UK Law.
