

respondent wrongful application of an Asbo order against my self and still wait for my honour Judge HHP Paklard to over see the on goings at appeal.

I do believe that it is easy for any person to come to the same conclusion that any attempt to apply for a further Mental Health assessment would be a waste of public funding as it will lead towards the same understanding that I Mr Simon Cordell am of well sanity and stability as pervious assessments.

I will leave the decisions of disclosure in receipt from the respondent to your discretion.

Yours fifthly
Kind regards
Mr Simon Cordell

Chapter 58558

To Your Honour HHJ Pawlak

@ I am writing this letter to explain to you how I feel and to also to give my side of the recent events of my case.

@ My Appeal has been put back twice already and this is obviously very distressing for me, the on goings of the Asbo case has been pursued since 2014.

@ I would also like to apologise in advance for the length of this letter, but I feel this is the only way to put across my true account of what has since transpired between myself and my solicitors, so for any person of interest to be able to take an insight of the matters of concern in advance of the up and coming dated hearing, that is booked for court on the 21/09/2016.
