The reason I noticed the woman hanging out of her window was because I heard her shouting foul vulgar and abusive while obscene language, I soon found this to be towards my person.
Carron lives on the second floor in the block next to me, while I live on the ground floor, the complainant is not my next door neighbour, below her window is her neighbour's garden that lives in the same block as she does, what is in fact two gardens along from my private back garden, more than a fair safe distance.
From the complainants window you cannot see the whole of my back garden as her block has been built three meters ajar, forward to mine as can clearly be seen on Google maps.
For the complainant to ever be able to see me from where she was, she had to deliberately hang quite far out of the window and invade my privacy.
I knew at this point I could involve the police in regards to a section 4 or 5 public order act, but chose to ignore the rude behavior I was adduced to by the complainant.
She shouted at me, 'what are you "abusive language doing? "You have woken up my children!" They are ill, I have had the ambulance here, and did you not see it!
She was extremely aggressive towards me and continued to swear at me while she was shouting.
Then I walked back even further into my back garden so to be able to see her clearly and then looked up at her and said, 'Who are you talking to? My own mother doesn't even speak to me like that!'
I cannot recall her reply, but she mentioned something about the sound of my music and motorbike, this was the first time and only time that any person has spoken to me in regards to them issues raised of her concern.
In talking to her I told her that I would keep the noise down and then turned off my bike and went inside.
After being abused by the complainant I made sure that I would never cause any reason to alert any new concern in respect of the complaint wishes.
This was the first and only involvement I have had with the complainant.
I was not rude, neither aggressive towards her, I was however shocked at the way she spoke to me.
To be honest she was the one who was aggressive towards me.
At that time I did not know she had children living with her and had not intended to cause any inconvenience or disruption to them or any other person.
I did not shout, 'what, what, what?!' at her and I did not make any threats towards her or her children and I did not and could not have approached her
