Dear Mr Cordell,

Re: Vexatious and Unreasonable Complaints

We write to bring to your attention our concern regarding the volume of your contact, your repetitive complaints raised and the occasionally threatening tone of your telephone correspondence. Most recently, you spoke with the Chief Executive's office on 6 June and were abusive during the call.

The Council is of the view that the aspects of your correspondence are deemed as being unreasonable complainant behaviour. Unreasonable and unreasonably persistent complainants are those complainants who, because of the nature or frequency of their contacts with an organisation, hinder the organisation's consideration of their, or other people's complaints.

We have concluded your contact is vexatious for the following reasons:

This is not an exhaustive list but examples of unreasonable actions and behaviour which can be deemed as vexatious:

- You have sent frequent and overlapping correspondence on this same matter. Your contact is disproportionate and have or are likely to cause an unjustified level of disruption, irritation or distress.
- You are making excessive demands on the time and resources of staff with lengthy phone calls, emails to numerous council staff, or frequent emails / letters to staff.
- Submitting repeat contacts which have been addressed, essentially about the same issues, with additions/variations which the complainant insists make these 'new'.
- Refusing to accept the decision; repeatedly arguing points with no new evidence.

Council Officers have spent copious amounts of time on your contact which detracts from the Council being able to conduct its business effectively. We hereby conclude that the Council's Community Safety Unit will no longer respond to your repetitive correspondence. Any further contact received will be placed on file and coordinated through a single point of contact until such time as the current situation is concluded
