* IMPORTANT NOTICE ON EMAIL COMMUNICATIONS ****

Thank you for your email, which has been received by the court. Depending on the nature of your email you may receive a response via email or post.

What documents can be sent by email?

You can send all letters and documents relevant to the case including adoption cases. However, due to the sensitive nature of adoption work the court will only send emails to secure email accounts. If a hard copy of a document has been filed at court by DX or Post, an electronic copy should not be sent. As yet please note that court bundles are not part of this process and will not be printed.

For more information regarding e-mails please go to the following <http://www.justice.gov.uk/courts/email-guidance>

What is a secure email account?

An email account is considered secure when security measures are in place to make sure the data in the email can't be accessed by users without the relevant approval. Any account that ends in the following is considered secured: gsi, pnn, gsx, gcsx, gse, cjsm, and nhs.net.

What emails will HMCTS accept?

To make sure we operate this service as efficiently and effectively as possible there are exemptions.

All Civil and Family process, applications and documents will be accepted by email as long as when the entire email is printed out it is not more than 50 pages. This should include the email, all attachments (including any documents embedded in another) and enough copies to serve on required parties.

Please note that:

1. A page is one side, so 50 pages equals 25 pieces of paper printed on both sides.
2. Do not use more than one email to take any step in a case which requires a document or documents to be filed.

DOCUMENTS FOR HEARINGS IN ACCORDANCE WITH CIVIL PROCEDURE RULES PD, 5B.2. FAMILY PROCEDURE RULE PD 5B

You have received an order to attend court for a hearing.

It would greatly assist the court staff if you could ensure documents you file into court have a hearing date endorsed on the covering letter, paperwork or email.

This will then enable the court staff to identify the document is placed on file in readiness for the hearing.

Please note, if the court is unaware of the pending hearing, when you file your documents, this may result in the document not reaching the court file in time for the hearing.

Can processes that carry a fee be sent by email?

In both Civil and Family cases court processes that carry a fee can also be received by email and processed by court staff. However the same conditions as above must apply and in addition the party issuing the process must either quote a Fee Account number, or the party who wants to pay has a valid credit or debit card. If you wish to pay using this method please say this on the email and include a contact number for the Court to contact you to take payment.

What is Fee Account?

This is a Direct Debit function that is quick, safe and easy to use. It is available for solicitors and large organisations. Once you have set up an account all you need is to provide your fee account number within the body of the email. The fee will then be deducted from your account. For more information and to apply for Fee Account please visit www.justice.gov.uk/courts/fees/payment-by-account.

Any document submitted that breaches any of the above terms will remain unprocessed. This is in line with Court Practice Directions 5BPD.1 – 5BPD.9.3.

When you email the court the subject line of your mail must contain (in the following order): -

- The claim number
- The title of the claim (abbreviated if necessary) **
- The subject matter (e.g. defence)
- If relating to a hearing the date and time of hearing in bold black
- The judge's name, where the correspondence/document is for their attention

If your email is in relation to a family matter, please refer to the initials only.

Your message should also contain the name, telephone number and email address of the sender. Correspondence and documents may be sent as either text or attachments. Where there is a practice form, it must be sent in that form by attachment. The complete email (including any attachment(s)) must not exceed 10Mb.

The rest of this automated message provides information that customers often find useful.

SIMON CORDELL

Thank you for your email of 12 December 2019. I am sorry you have had cause to complain about the service you have received from the Court. It is my role in accordance with HMCTS complaints procedure to investigate your complaint.

I have fully investigated the matter. The order of 6 December 2019 has been incorrectly drawn. The claimant had sent to the Court a draft order which was referred to a Judge and approved. I have sent by Royal Mail a copy of the amended order for your records.

Your request to view the Court file was referred to a Judge who has made the following comments:

'Defendant is entitled only to copies of orders and statements of case, plus other documents as listed in Civil Procedure Rules Practise Direction 5.A 4.2A (page 264 of 2019 Green Book).'

If you ask the court to make copies of documents or provide a copy of a document already provided there will be a Court fee applicable. Please refer to the EX 50 Civil and Family Court Fees booklet for further information.

Please highlight the documents you require from the Court file and we will inform you of the Court fee due.

Please accept my apologies for the administrative error and for any inconvenience this has caused. I hope that this is a satisfactory conclusion to your complaint.

If you are unhappy with my reply, you are entitled to escalate your complaint and request a review by writing to Ms J Billyack, Operations Manager, at The Civil and Family Court at Edmonton, 59 Fore Street, Edmonton, London N18 2TN.

Yours sincerely,

Dear Mr A Mustafa

Thank you for the below reply regarding the complaint submitted.

I do feel some points have not been addressed, which I will list within this email.

The draft order, which the claimant had drawn up for the court to seal, was incorrect, where is stated the (The claim be adjourned generally with liberty to restore)

The letter my son's acting solicitors received from the claimant regarding the case was stated they had been instructed to discontinue the claim, not what the draft order sent to the court stated, The claim be adjourned generally with liberty to restore.

I will enclose a full copy of the letter sent by the claimant acting solicitors, to my son's solicitors, which was then forwarded to my son and me.

It would seem that the claimant waited for legal aid to be removed from my son's acting solicitors and then drafted a court order that was completely different from what had been stated in their letter. Now the claimant's case is a live case for however long they want it to be, and not discontinued they had stated in their letter. Unless the Judge has changed that within the amended order that you have sent in the royal mail to me.

I did ask in my complaint for the order to be set aside, as I do not feel that the claimant's case should be allowed to stay a live case for however long they want with no end date attached to the court order.

Can you please update me regarding this issues as soon as possible if the wording on the court order is still with (The claim be adjourned generally with liberty to restore)

Please see attached letter.

Dear Sir / Madam,

Re: LB Enfield v Simon Cordell Claim NO: F00ED222 Hearing: 12 December 2019 at 2pm t/e 20 mins at Edmonton County Court

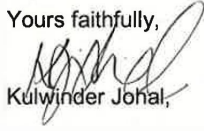

We write further in this case. We would be grateful if you could advise us on whether you are still instructed by Mr Cordell.

The possession claim is listed for a direction's hearing on 12 December 2019.

We write to advise you that we are instructed to discontinue the claim on the basis that each party bears their own costs as there have been no recent incidents of antisocial behaviour. The situation will be monitored but for the time being it is not this authority's intention to proceed with the possession claim.

We request that you seek instructions and revert to us as soon as possible so that a suitable worded consent order maybe agreed.

F00ED222 L B ENFIELD – V - CORDELL

Thank you for your email received via resolver, I am sorry to hear that you remain dissatisfied with the service you have received from the court in relation to this case.

I should explain that this letter represents the second stage of the complaints process. If you are not satisfied with my reply, you can write to HMCTS Correspondence and Customer Service Team for review.

I have now undertaken a review of your case, and all correspondence relating to your complaint on the information held by The Civil and Family Court at Edmonton and concluded no administrative error was made by the court staff at Edmonton County Court in the handling of your case.

I am unable to offer you any payment of costs in the matter as explained below: -

Hi Lorraine,

The case papers are created and managed on an electronic online system. For some reason when this was sent to the CPS the case papers have not all correctly sent over. The reason it has taken a little while is because I have not had a chance to properly review the papers until now due to the daily demand of answering 999 calls and investigating numerous other crimes.

I apologise for any inconvenience caused and I appreciate yours and Simons cooperation. I am on annual leave until 12/07/2019 and will be in touch as soon as I have any case updates.

Dear PC Alex DAVIS

I am just replying to your below email as something is worrying me.

When my son was arrested on the 26/05/2019 he was then interviewed in the early hours of the 27/05/2019, at that point after interview the file was sent to the CPS for a decision, around 10:30 hours me and my son's solicitors attended again for a next interview for something else and when we asked for an update regarding the 1st interview we were told by PC Law that there was something wrong with the servers and that the CPS did not get the file to make the decision and that the file had to be sent over to the CPS via email due to the issue with the server and it was going to be done on that date.

We had the interview and as I was leaving I asked if a decision was going to be made in time due to the 24 hours nearly going to be ended, which I was told yes, but on the way home I got a call to come back to the police station due to my son being released on bail as it would have taken to long to get a decision and the time would have run out, again I was told the file would be sent to the CPS, and my son was released on a 28 day bail to return so yesterday when we came to the police station with Simon I was shocked when you called and said Simon was going to be released under investigation as the case needs to be sent back up to the CPS for a decision.

May I ask at this point why the file has not been sent to the CPS already and a decision made?

Dear PC Davis

I am writing this email as I have not heard from you regarding the bail to return today for my son Simon Cordell, When my son was released from the police station we was told by PS NICOLAOU and PC Law in custody my son would not need to return today, that if my son was charged he would get a letter before this date to go to court, or if it was NFA we would also be told before this date. I also asked which was confirmed I would be updated of the outcome via this email or a phone call.

Over the last days I have sent emails and PC Law did reply to me and told me that you was the officer in charge, and you would get back to me, I know you have been given the messages and she told me that she would pass them over to you, but I have had no replies I also know my son's solicitors have contracted you also getting no reply.

The police are well aware my son does not leave his home and finds it very hard to do so.

Could you please get back to me regarding this issue via this email or my phone number is 07807 333545 or could you contract

Mr Cordell's solicitors and let them know the outcome, if my son is to be charged all we need to know is the court date that he will need to attend court, I do not see why my son would need to attend the police station to be told this which would cause him more stress.

Dear PC Law

I am writing this email in regards to the bail to return for my son Mr. Simon Cordell on 24/06/2019 at 2:00 hours to wood Green Police station.

I know we spoke about me getting an update due to Simon mail issues, but I have not heard anything from you regarding the outcome of the bail to return, and I was expecting I would have known by now the outcome.

I am not sure if Simon will need to attend the police station on the 24/06/2019 as it was stated he will not need to attend and we would have the outcome before this date.

Could you please get back to me as soon as possible regarding this matter, you can email me on this email and I know you took my phone number also so should have this.

Regards

Lorraine Cordell

Dear GoDaddy Customers,

As COVID-19 continues to spread, there's nothing more important to us than the well-being of our customers and employees.

To help you keep your venture going, we've pulled together free products, resources and tools from trusted sources. You'll find videos and articles specific to your challenges — and a community of small businessowners to support you with creative solutions that are working.

You can find everything here, including Fogue Studios & Gallery's great example of adapting its business to continue to sell fine art.

Our GoDaddy Guides continue to answer the phones and chat, 24/7. No question is off-topic or too small (though there may be increased wait times since they're working from home, and you might hear kids and dogs). Call us if you need help. We're here for you.

Our services are up and running so your online business can remain open — so you can reach your customers and they can connect with you.

Lastly, please take good care of yourself and your loved ones. Stay safe. Stay healthy. Be patient and kind. There is no better time to strengthen our bonds, to stand together (digitally), to help each other through this storm, and come out the other side stronger.

Together, we will.

COVID-19 Safety and Changes at DPR Wholesalers

As a Home & Hardware business, government advice is that we are able to continue to trade. However, we take the health & safety of our team, customers and the wider community very seriously. Due to the COVID-19 pandemic we have taken the difficult decision to TEMPORARILY CLOSE our store.

We will be closed on Saturday 28th March 2020 - UNTIL FURTHER NOTICE. We will keep you updated via email, twitter and our website regarding our re-opening and operating procedures.

Operating procedures until Friday 27th March 2020

In the meantime we will be open as usual but have made some changes to the way we work to try and minimise the risk of transmission:

- We ask that if you feel unwell or are displaying any of the symptoms of COVID-19 such as a temperature of 37.8 degrees or higher, a sore throat or cough you stay away from the premises for a minimum of two weeks after these symptoms have passed.
- All customers that wish to enter the premises must wear protective gloves and masks provided upon entry and keep them on until they leave.
- We will allow only one person entry per registered account.
- We ask that you complete your visit as quickly and efficiently as possible, if customers fail to do this we may need to restrict the number of people we allow inside the premises at one time.
- Please keep conversations with our staff and other customers to a minimum.
- All customers must stay at least 2 meters away from our staff and each other at all times.
- Failure to comply with above will mean we cannot serve you and you will need to leave the premises immediately.

We thank you for your understanding and patience during these uncertain times.

Master the Plot Points that Matter

What comes easiest to you when working on your novel? For me, it's writing specific scenes. I often have a clear vision for what I want my characters to say and do in a certain moment. Mapping out an overarching plot, on the other hand? Not my strong suit.

Speaking to some of my writer friends, I know that others feel differently. Some writers love thinking about the plot of their story. But executing the mechanics of that plot on a scene-by-scene basis isn't nearly as fun for them.

In this newsletter, we're talking all about plot. We have articles about everything from the four plot mistakes you might be making to the difference between plot, story, and structure... and why that difference matters.

Plus, at the end, we have an invitation to our next ProWritingAid Write-In. Join us as we work on mastering suspense together, live.

Read on!

How to Master the Plot Points that Matter

Whether you write your novel as you go (aka, you're a "pants-er") or you build a scene sequence before you begin, missing one of the five major plot points that define all novels will slow down your story.

If you skip these plot points, readers may not know the intended plot structure, but they will know that something is missing from your story. In this article, we cover the five plot points that matter and how to include them in your work.

Check them out here.

4 Plot Mistakes You Might Be Making

Sometimes it's hard to see plot problems while you're writing. You may get to the end of your novel and realize that there are huge plot holes which affect the integrity of your work.

This realization will send some writers into a downward spiral of negative self-talk. Others will white-knuckle their way through half-hearted revisions.

Fortunately, there are steps you can take to rectify your mistakes without tossing your whole book out and starting from scratch.

Here are a few common plot pitfalls and what you can do to fix them.

How to Write a Mind-Blowing Plot Twist like Gone Girl

As a reader, don't you love the mind-blowing plot twist that seems to come out of nowhere, yet makes complete sense? There's something deeply absorbing in a good plot twist you didn't see coming; it sticks with you, sometimes for years.

Plot twists can happen in the middle of your story, creating a feverish tension that keeps readers turning the pages to see how this new twist will play out next. Other plot twists happen at the climax of a story, resonating with you long after the last page. But you can't force a plot twist; readers will smell it a mile away.

In this article, we teach you how to write a successful plot twist.

Plot Versus Story

If asked, could you clearly define the difference between plot, story, and structure? If you're not confident that you could, don't worry! There's a lot of conflicting information out there.

But, understanding the difference between plot, structure, and story is important because knowing the difference and how they affect your writing process can help you tell a powerful story. In this article, we break it down, once and for all.

Learn the difference between plot, story, and structure here.

How to Balance Surprise and Suspense in Your Novel

Surprise and suspense perform two different functions in fiction. You can use both to reap readers' attention. They work in different ways so you need to know the difference, as well as how and when to add each to your story.

You can use surprise and suspense to keep your readers engaged and turning the pages of your story. In this article, we break down the difference between each term and explain how to use them effectively.

Response sent via email

Dear Mr Cordell,

Re: Vexatious and Unreasonable Complaints

Further to the letter we sent you on the 27th June 2019 (copy attached), we are writing to confirm that we will be extending the single point of contact for another 12 months from the date of this letter.

During the past 12 months, you have failed to follow the single point of contact detailed in the original letter and on the 23rd June 2020, you phoned the council, repeating the same issues you have previously raised, despite having been told in previous correspondence these would not be dealt with.

We reaffirm the information given to you in June 2019 that Council Officers have spent copious amounts of time on your contact which detracts from the Council being able to conduct its business effectively.

We hereby conclude that the Council's Community Safety Unit will no longer respond to your repetitive correspondence. Any further contact received will be placed on file and coordinated through a single point of contact until such time as the current situation is concluded and the volume of letters becomes reasonable. This includes correspondence from other family members acting on your behalf. The Council had received contact from your mother where issues were repetitive to what you have raised. We have explained to your mother that the Council cannot continue to respond to various parties on the same matters and that going forward we will be following the arrangement put in place whereby issues are solely raised by you to your single point of contact.

In relation to the arrangements outlined here for a single point of contact, may I remind you that the Council does not tolerate offensive and inappropriate behaviour. We therefore ask that you reflect on such behaviour and stop contacting the Council officers in such a manner.

The medium of contact that you should use to correspond with the Council for future requests should be by email only and through your single point of contact who will be Karen Hale. These restrictions will be in place for a year and will then be reviewed accordingly. Should you wish to appeal this decision to restrict your contact, please contact Karen Hale, Complaints and Access to Information Manager at: complaintsandinformation@enfield.gov.uk within 20 working days of this letter.

Dear Mr Cordell,

Re: Vexatious and Unreasonable Complaints

We write to bring to your attention our concern regarding the volume of your contact, your repetitive complaints raised and the occasionally threatening tone of your telephone correspondence. Most recently, you spoke with the Chief Executive's office on 6 June and were abusive during the call.

The Council is of the view that the aspects of your correspondence are deemed as being unreasonable complainant behaviour. Unreasonable and unreasonably persistent complainants are those complainants who, because of the nature or frequency of their contacts with an organisation, hinder the organisation's consideration of their, or other people's complaints.

We have concluded your contact is vexatious for the following reasons:

This is not an exhaustive list but examples of unreasonable actions and behaviour which can be deemed as vexatious:

- You have sent frequent and overlapping correspondence on this same matter. Your contact is disproportionate and have or are likely to cause an unjustified level of disruption, irritation or distress.
- You are making excessive demands on the time and resources of staff with lengthy phone calls, emails to numerous council staff, or frequent emails / letters to staff.
- Submitting repeat contacts which have been addressed, essentially about the same issues, with additions/variations which the complainant insists make these 'new'.
- Refusing to accept the decision; repeatedly arguing points with no new evidence.

Council Officers have spent copious amounts of time on your contact which detracts from the Council being able to conduct its business effectively. We hereby conclude that the Council's Community Safety Unit will no longer respond to your repetitive correspondence. Any further contact received will be placed on file and coordinated through a single point of contact until such time as the current situation is concluded

Dear Karen Hale

I was wondering if you sent a copy of this to my son via his home address and if so on what date? Or has it just been sent to me?

If you could also please send me a list of all dates and times my son has called and for what reason he has called for the past year, highlighting dates where you state he has been Vexatious and Unreasonable I would be most grateful.

Also I am sorry for the updated email the reason is due to me reading the letter fully what you have written, can you also please supply me with dates in the last year I have contracted the council for my son regarding the issues listed in the letter dated the 23/06/2020, again highlighting all dates and times you state I have been Vexatious and Unreasonable.

1. I believe I contracted the council named officer once after the letter dated 27/06/2020 which I had no reply to.
2. The other contract I had was due to an ongoing court cases, which most of the time my son's solicitors was contracting the council towards the end of the case, I had to address the council directly as my son no longer had a solicitor acting for him.
3. The only other time I had contract was when the MP was addressing issues regarding a court order which the court made which the council did not comply with.
4. And the only other time I have had contact is due to repairs that needed doing to my sons flat.

Could you therefore supply me with the above information as soon as possible so this can be addressed in a timely manner.

Dear Karen Hale

I have not had a reply from the below email dated the 24/06/2020, which I would like a reply to or at least a reply to state you will not reply to me.

My son has also tried to have contract with you and you have not replied back to him, we have been given you as a single point of contact, yet there is no contract from you.

There are major issue with the letter that has been sent via Jeremy Chambers dated the 24/06/2020 and I am very concerned regarding its content.

We would also like to appeal against the decision to restrict contact dated the 24/06/2020, but before I can summit my appeal in full I need the information below as the letter states we have 28 days in which to appeal so if my request can be dealt with as soon as possible I would be grateful.

But I am making you aware an appeal is going to be submitted, there could you please reply.

Mr Simon, is your car insurance ready for post-lockdown life?

After the latest easing of certain Coronavirus related restrictions, you might find yourself and other car users on the roads more often. So, while we all get used to driving again, now is a great time to review your current car insurance and compare with GoCompare.

If you need to claim on your car insurance, you'll usually have to pay an amount towards it - the excess. But if you buy car insurance through us, we'll refund up to £250 of your excess after your claim has been settled.

Over 1 million people have already taken advantage of our free £250 excess cover[^]. And don't worry, it doesn't affect the price of your car insurance - in fact, you could save up to £289* by comparing with us.

Travel restrictions are easing - planning a trip?

The Foreign and Commonwealth Office (FCO) has recently updated the travel restrictions for certain countries. This means there could be a chance for a summer holiday abroad.

Due to this news, we're offering travel insurance comparison again, so you can compare policies to find the right cover for your trip.

Make sure you always check the FCO advice before booking your holiday and buying your travel insurance, as this may change.

Staying in the UK? Holiday in your garden instead.

Since lockdown began, online searches for hot tubs have increased 460% and above-ground pools by 1,600%, as summer holidays move from the beach to the garden.

But don't get carried away buying garden equipment - it might not be included in your home insurance. Check your policy for the total sum covered under 'contents in outbuildings including garages' to make sure your garden's contents are covered.

Here are some tips for keeping your garden and outdoor equipment safe if you're planning a garden-cation:

Maintain boundary hedges and fences to help deter opportunistic thieves

Plant prickly shrubs or hedges as a defense

Keep outdoor possessions and tools locked away where possible

Install security lighting

Secure expensive plants with wire pegs dug into the ground

Use a security pen to mark valuable items with your postcode

How to protect your pet post-lockdown

Lots of people have bought a pet during lockdown, but it's important to buy safely and get the right level of protection for your new pal.

If you're buying or adopting a pet online, check for reviews of the site or person. You should also ask for a video call if you can't see the pet in person.

Don't pay by bank transfer, as it offers little financial protection. Any suspicions? Then don't go ahead.

When you've got your new fur friend, make sure you get the type of pet insurance that offers the right cover.

Dear Karen Hale

I have not had a reply from the below email dated the 24/06/2020, which I would like a reply to or at least a reply to state you will not reply to me.

My son has also tried to have contract with you and you have not replied back to him, we have been given you as a single point of contact, yet there is no contract from you.

There are major issue with the letter that has been sent via Jeremy Chambers dated the 24/06/2020 and I am very concerned regarding its content.

We would also like to appeal against the decision to restrict contact dated the 24/06/2020, but before I can submit my appeal in full I need the information below as the letter states we have 28 days in which to appeal so if my request can be dealt with as soon as possible I would be grateful.

But I am making you aware an appeal is going to be submitted, there could you please reply.

Regards

Dear Karen Hale

I was wondering if you sent a copy of this to my son via his home address and if so on what date? Or has it just been sent to me?

If you could also please send me a list of all dates and times my son has called and for what reason he has called for the past year, highlighting dates where you state he has been Vexatious and Unreasonable I would be most grateful.

Also I am sorry for the updated email the reason is due to me reading the letter fully what you have written, can you also please supply me with dates in the last year I have contracted the council for my son regarding the issues listed in the letter dated the 23/06/2020, again highlighting all dates and times you state I have been Vexatious and Unreasonable.

1. I believe I contracted the council named officer once after the letter dated 27/06/2020 which I had no reply to.
2. The other contract I had was due to an ongoing court cases, which most of the time my son's solicitors was contracting the council towards the end of the case, I had to address the council directly as my son no longer had a solicitor acting for him.
3. The only other time I had contract was when the MP was addressing issues regarding a court order which the court made which the council did not comply with.
4. And the only other time I have had contact is due to repairs that needed doing to my sons flat.

Could you therefore supply me with the above information as soon as possible so this can be addressed in a timely manner.

Regards

Lorraine

- Objective 1: Complete Claim.
- Objective 2: Be successful in accomplishing the claim.

To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing this letter regarding a call that was made on the date of the 06/08/2020, I have been asked to send this letter over to explain that I have been preparing the official documentation that will be forwarded to the relevant departments as part of my claim against the Enfield Council / The Enfield Neighbourhood team including others E.g. Police and Doctors.

Due to the large amount of documentation that is involved to complete the listed objectives and myself being just one person this has taken a massive amount of my time and is still in possess.

To aid in a speedier claim I have invited the Enfield Council and Insurance companies involved to help me document my evidence on a numerous number of different days, which the lack of support from officials involved has led myself to completing the claim on my own as of so far.

My evidence does show case already the actions that have been taken against me wrongly and saving time is why I have tried to arrange prior meetings.

I would like this letter dated the 10/08/2020 to be registered as the start of my claim and would explain that I need further time form the date of this letter for my documents and evidence to be completed and put in order.

Once all my documents and evidence are completed, I am asking yet again if a meeting can be set up for the documents and evidence to be looked at due to the very large amount that will come with this claim, with my mother and myself present as I am the victim and would like to explain my evidence in person to another's.

Yours faithfully

Mr Simon Cordell - 07/08/2020

This is not a conclusive summery

I Mr. Simon Cordell have gotten asked to clarify why I am lodging a claim against the listed;

Listed

1. The Enfield Council
2. The Enfield Neighbourhood team
3. Police
4. Doctors

The named and listed companies within this document have acted in joint circular thought the years of 2013 till date of this letter and must be able to be held legally liable to prosecution for their misplace actions and/or wrong doings.

I have sustained Personal and Property damage to no fault of my own as a result of failures caused by the Listed 1,2,3,4, running companies activities faults.

The Local Authority's listed above have caused me to suffer by way of Negligence, Gross Misconduct and Criminal Offences and my sufferings have gotten caused by a failure of care on their part.

I can prove the Listed 1,2,3,4, companies' staff have acted

1. Bios and unreasonable while taking on running companies' activities in the public domain.

2. Them involved staff have caused and are causing a Poor reaction times to public concerns.
3. Negligence
4. Gross Misconduct
5. Criminal Offences

And in a knock-on effect their reckless behaviour has caused me to suffer by ways such as;

General damages = General damages relate to the impact on my life referring to such issues as:

1. Pain and suffering caused by the Listed 1,2,3,4,
2. Forced changes to my lifestyle.
3. Mental trauma.

Special damages = Special damages relate to the impact on my life referring to such issues as:

1. Loss of earnings.
2. My future loss of earnings.
3. Medical treatment.
4. Future medical treatment.
5. Transport expenses relating to forged court case
6. Changes to my living environment.

The listed local authorities have a legal duty of care to me and their other customers and have failed to maintain this duty of care for myself.

A legal liability can be established by the burden of evidence that I hold regarding these damages that does prove fault that has gotten caused by Negligence, Gross Misconduct and/or Criminal Activities with intent.

13) The organisation of Illegal Raves

A) The Asbo's Simulated History

Just to stipulate a small part of what I can prove has taken place to myself due to no fault of my own is:

- 1) When the Asbo got created it was after the date of 00/00/2014 the day after an accused incident took place on a second occasion at Mill Mash Lane.
- 2) Just prior to Mill Mash Lane Another Incident is accused to have taken place at Progress way Enfield on the dates of the 06&07&08/06/2014

What can be proved about Progress Way in relation to my claim is;

I had been on police curfew alongside other harsh bail conditions at my home address from the dates of 00/00/2013 till I won the case on the 00/00/2014.

The Metropolitan Police Force and my local Council both understood about my bail conditions, as I had been working with them both doing local events in my surrounding parks, while I had taken on the keys from my local community hall and was managing the local community's & facility's, The Enfield Council and police both attended while I was at work.

At the same time, I had been working with other charity's and committing my time to my own dreams of building g a large-scale event.

On the dates of 06&07&08/06/2014, another person named as (A) who I had not seen for over a year prior due to the police curfew and other bail conditions that I had been placed on had gotten spoken to by a police officer named (B) about not putting on an event in Hertfordshire.

police officer named (B) served a dispersal order / notice on person named as (A) while also informing Metropolitan police of the possibility of a after event taking place in London. I was aware of none of the following until after served the Asbo application and requesting such information.

In the early hours of the morning of the 07/06/2014 at the time of around 1300 hours I received a phone call of a young male friend named as (C), at the time I had been having a family drink in the pub/hall with my cousin as it was his leaving party.

My friend named as (C), invited me to come and visit them at where they were residing what was close to my location in my local borough as they were having a celebration.

This was the first point of time when I understood that my friends were next to where I live. I agreed to go and visit this friend for the first time in other 1 year.

I drove my car to go and see my friends and took my partner of the time with me.

When we arrived at the secured premises, the police were present at the gates and asked me if I had organised any of the then and there present. Me and my partner both explained no and gave our reason for attendance Progress way and that was to see friends, and this was allowed.

On the same industry site as progress way, in fact next doors to progress way was a new building that I did not no was a police patrol centre that had just been built.

What can get proved from the Asbo application is on the 07/06/2014 the first cad of the day is missing CAD 943 and this is Crown road

Cad 1012 was next

Cad 1047 is the 3rd call made to Bow call centre "MetCCC." The person who made this telephone call to the emergency services was a police office with name of Pc Shinick while on duty and this cad becomes the main cad linked to Progress Way.

Bow call centre "MetCCC" arranges for police officers to attend the location after the time of 01:59, while asking Pc Shinick while on duty if he has contacted the Enfield Civic Centre regarding this matter. All communication after this was done by way of text.

Police Officer 206372 a Steve Elsmore who was attached to the Anti- Social Behaviour Team as part of the Community Safety Unit, Based at Enfield Civic Centre. Had prior to these dates of the 06&07&08/06/2014 Progress Way had been receiving a lot of phone call as so had the Metropolitan police about other premises that they oversaw named as the Man Building on Southbury rd.

My mother also put a subject access request into the council in purist of information about the Man Building on Southbury rd.

As noted in the Asbo CAD 0000 the Man Building had a fragile roof, meaning that the police and the Enfield Council could not go into the building in all the months that it had been squatted due to health and safety reasons and this took place while I was on curfew.

Eventually, I have gone home and had no problems with the police and /or the council on the 07/

Enfield Neighbours' anger over 15-hour rave in Southbury Road

Charlie Peat / Friday 25 April 2014 / News

Follow @ Enfield Andy Chaz

Ravers took over abandoned business building for more than 15 hours,

The former HAN building in Crown Road, on the junction with Southbury Road, was the venue for an illegal party that began on Saturday night.

According to residents in Anglesey Road, adjacent to crown road, the loud noise and disturbance continued until 3pm the next day.

One resident, who wanted to remain anonymous, said that the 15-hour rave was "ridiculously loud/"

He said: "It was so loud the whole house was shaking like an earthquake was happening.

There are no clubs or bars near us so this was quite a shock. We understand that sometimes it could be loud late at night but for it to continue until 3pm the next day is not right. "I walked along to check out what was going on, it was ridiculously loud. Things were getting smashed up in the building and people were spray painting everywhere." Police say they attended late on Saturday evening and returned the following day and music was still being played.

TOTAL POLICING COME AND TALK TO THE COMMISSIONER WHAT WOULD YOU ASK? We are inviting you to meet the Commissioner of the Metropolitan Police Service. Sir Bernard Hogan-Howe.

DATE: Wednesday 14th October 2015 TIME: 6.30pm -7.30pm (doors open at 6.00pm for refreshments! LOCATION: Aylward Academy, Windmill Road.

Rave in disused office went on for 15 hours (From Enfield Independent) experience.

Kate Laird, also of Anglesey Road said: We are furious that nothing was done at the time, I have children and we couldn't sleep all night. One of our neighbors saw police show up but they did not do anything.

Listed building 'wrecked' by graffiti (From Enfield Independent)

Vandals have "completely wrecked" an abandoned building by painting graffiti on the front and squatting inside.

The NAN building, in Crown Road, on the junction with Southbury Road, Enfield, has also been used for illegal raves and parties in the last few months.

Formerly used as a car factory, the Grade II listed building closed down more than a year ago and Enfield Borough Council is now looking for a new owner.

David Cockle, the chairman of the Enfield Society, has been left concerned by the way the way the building has fallen into disrepair.

He said: 'It once had a very nice, manicured garden - but now it's just been completely wrecked. It's a huge shame.

"I recently discovered that squatters have been on site and It's generally in a deplorable state, it doesn't give a good impression to people visiting the area for the first time.

"It's such a high-profile site and one we should be proud of, but now it just looks awful.1'

Earlier this year, people in nearby Anglesey Road, said their houses were "shaking like an

The party included loud music and continued until 3pm the next afternoon - a total of 15 hours.

Graffiti tags have now been emblazoned on the front of the building, which has been boarded up.

Mr. [REDACTED] added: "For a listed building to be left like that, it's terrible

"The plants and shrubs are overgrown too - it's sad to see it so run down.

"It used to be such an attractive building. 1M

- 1) As prior mentioned when the Asbo got created it was after the date of 00/00/2014 the day after an accused incident took place, on a second occasion at Mill Mash Lane.

Police Officer 206372 Steve Elsmore created the Asbo application on the date of the 00/00/2014 and when he done this in the police NPCADS that is in connection to the council's neighbourhood team and themselves

He got a Uniq reference number for the second incident in the Asbo that is accused to have taken place at Mill Marsh Lane.

Steve Elsmore continued to search the NCS and went to the year of 2010. He found two pieces of police intelligence that had been No Further Actioned, in fact I have never been arrested for any of the following two Crimit/Cads/Reports.

Crimit/Cads/Reports

1. 12.1. Canary Wharf 12/01/2013

Crimit/Cads/Reports

2. Rays Nightclub 2010

Because Steven Elsmore understood what he was going to do when creating the Asbo application that got put against me was a criminal activity, he took caution in covering up his tracks.

He took the information / context out of the Crimit of

Crimit/Cads/Reports

1. Cannery Wolf 2010

and placed in into a fresh uniq Crimit that he took out of the national police computed aid dispatch system 50 after creating Mill Mash Lanes Cad that he used to create the Asbo and he also changed the police officers name and other related details to names of his pleasure.

The reasons for him to do this was to protect the original police officers who are not attached to the boroughs of North London and to keep these illegal activities to a minimum of people involved.

The Crimit/Cads/Reports

2. Rays Nightclub 2010

Was never used in the Asbo application.

The illegal activities never stopped at this point, Steven Elsmore continued to search the NPCADS for more intelligence that he could manipulate to his and his colleague's own advantages. Steven Elsmore continued his frenzy of eager sensation

He imputed into the Asbo application out of the police national computer aid dispatch system some of the cads related to the prior week of Progress Way that were in relation to

1. Illegal Raves
2. The Man Building that is on Crown Road. This can be checked by going to the last cad on the 07/06/2014 and checking the Linked Cads on the First and second pages as showed below;

Police Officer 219382

Dated 19/08/2014

He is a police officer in London Borough of Enfield and has been tasked to contact residents of the Borough called police to inform them of an illegal rave that took place over Friday 7th June 2014 and Saturday 8th June 2014 at a warehouse in

Progress Way Enfield

On Tuesday 19th August 2014 I contacted the caller of the CAD 10471/07June 2014 by telephone that she would give an impact statement regarding how illegal rave affected her and her husband over the above dates mentioned. The caller wishes to remain anonymous. I will refer to her as complainant "A" The original notes taken from her statement are present in my pocketbook serial 370/14, page 1.

Complainant "a" said it was a warm evening and we had to keep the windows shut because of the noise. That we could not even go out into the garden because of the noise. It kept me and my husband up all night and I was anxious the next day. The illegal rave totally ruined our weekend" This concluded what complainant 'A' said on this matter.

Mr Simon Cordell will state; "that at no point did he take part in any form of Anti Social behaviour and he did not organize or hire any equipment to this private house party neither was he at the rave on the 6th 7th 8th June 2014th.

Witness Statement

A/Inspector Hamill 201566

Friday 6th June 2014 Progress Way

A/Insp Hamill 201566 states; "I have had a CAD created reference 10471 7June dispatched officers to the location to assess access numbers, crowd dynamics and gather information around times the event is likely to run until ----and to make contact or identify the potential organiser. Officers have reported back that Tyrone Benjamin and Sir Tyrone Benjamin were at location and to be believed the event organisers, there were approximately 200 people in attendance. The event was covered by security officers who had stated that they were volunteers and not licensed through Security Services. I have spoken with staff to confirm that all fire escapes were clear, that there were sufficient fire extinguishers available and that there were first aid kits available."

A large list of criminal offences has taken place against me since the year of 2013 till date by members of the public whom are Enfield councils Clients and that also of Enfield Councils Employees

I have contacted the Metropolitan Police and the Enfield Council whom are my local authority's in respect of dealing with the criminal offences that i can prove have taken place and I do contact them with the relevant overwhelming evidence E.g. witness statements video and audio evidence but have been demoralised by those departments who should masonry act in a non-bios manner.

Courtesy / Secure Tenancy Agreement - Enfield Council

There is a breach of the codes of ethics relating towards “Courtesy” The Enfield Councils and the Enfield Homes officers and anyone acting on our behalf on them named will treat you with courtesy and respect.

The Equality Duty applies across Great Britain towards public bodies.

The Equality Act 2010 (the Act) replaces the previous anti-discrimination laws with one single Act, such as; --

1. “Discrimination!” To Eliminate unlawful discrimination, harassment and victimisation and other conduct that is prohibited by them Acts of law.
2. “Harassment!” To Advance in equality of opportunity between people who share a protected characteristic and those who do not.
3. “Victimisation!” To Foster good relations between people who share a protected characteristic and those who do not.

Section 149(1) of the Equality Act 2010 puts various requirements on organisations, when exercising their functions. The general duty requires organisations to have; “Due regard.”

Having due regard means “Consciously” thinking about the three aims of the “Public-Sector Equality Duty Act of law as common practice” and as part of the process of decision-making. This means that consideration of equality issues must influence the decisions reached by the organisations, whom are obliged to follow these protocols.

what is a breach of the Equality Act 2010

Criminal Offences I have Injured

Malfesance in public office

Misconduct in public office is an offence at common law triable only on indictment. It carries a maximum sentence of life imprisonment. It is an offence confined to those who are public office holders and is committed when the office holder acts (or fails to act) in a way that constitutes a breach of the duties of that office.

Where there is clear evidence of one or more statutory offences, they should usually form the basis of the case, with the 'public office' element being put forward as an aggravating factor for sentencing purposes.

The decision of the Court of Appeal in Attorney General's Reference No 3 of 2003 [2004] EWCA Crim 868 does not go so far as to prohibit the use of misconduct in public office where there is a statutory offence available. There is, however, earlier authority for preferring the use of statutory offences over common law ones. In R v Hall (1891) 1 QB 747 the court held that where a statute creates (or recreates) a duty and prescribes a particular penalty for a wilful neglect of that duty 'the remedy by indictment is excluded'.

In R v Rimmington, R v Goldstein [2005] UKHL63 at paragraph 30 the House of Lords confirmed this approach, saying:

"...good practice and respect for the primacy of statute...require that conduct falling within the terms of a specific statutory provision should be prosecuted under that provision unless there is good reason for doing otherwise."

The use of the common law offence should therefore be limited to the following situations:

Where there is no relevant statutory offence, but the behaviour or the circumstances are such that they should nevertheless be treated as criminal;

Where there is a statutory offence, but it would be difficult or inappropriate to use it. This might arise because of evidential difficulties in proving the statutory offence in the particular circumstances; or because the maximum sentence for the statutory offence would be entirely insufficient for the seriousness of the misconduct.

Definition of the Offence

The elements of the offence are summarised in Attorney General's Reference No 3 of 2003 [2004] EWCA Crim 868.

The offence is committed when:

a public officer acting as such;

wilfully neglects to perform his duty and/or wilfully misconducts himself;

to such a degree as to amount to an abuse of the public's trust in the office holder; without reasonable excuse or justification.

- Objective 1: Complete Claim.
- Objective 2: Be successful in accomplishing the claim.

To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing this letter regarding a call that was made on the date of the 06/08/2020, I have been asked to send this letter over to explain that I have been preparing the official documentation that will be forwarded to the relevant departments as part of my claim against the Enfield Council / The Enfield Neighbourhood team including others E.g. Police and Doctors.

Due to the large amount of documentation that is involved to complete the listed objectives and myself being just one person this has taken a massive amount of my time and is still in possess.

To aid in a speedier claim I have invited the Enfield Council and Insurance companies involved to help me document my evidence on a numerous number of different days, which the lack of support from officials involved has led myself to completing the claim on my own as of so far.

My evidence does show case already the actions that have been taken against me wrongly and saving time is why I have tried to arrange prior meetings.

I would like this letter dated the 10/08/2020 to be registered as the start of my claim and would explain that I need further time form the date of this letter for my documents and evidence to be completed and put in order.

Once all my documents and evidence are completed, I am asking yet again if a meeting can be set up for the documents and evidence to be looked at due to the very large amount that will come with this claim, with my mother and myself present as I am the victim and would like to explain my evidence in person to another's.

Yours faithfully

Mr Simon Cordell – 10/08/2020

Mr Simon, some travel insurers are offering enhanced Coronavirus cover

Standard travel policies won't cover claims relating to Coronavirus. But some insurers are now offering enhanced cover for it.

What this enhanced protection covers can vary. Read the policy carefully and find out more about what your travel insurance should include before you buy.

Compare travel insurance

Keep in mind that travel insurance won't cover you at all if you travel against Foreign and Commonwealth Office (FCO) advice.

Avoid e-scooting your way to trouble

While online searches for e-scooters have increased by 376% since the start of lockdown, in the UK you're only allowed to ride them on private land (unless it's part of a hire scheme).

You could be fined £300 and given six penalty points on your license for using your e-scooter on public roads, cycle lanes or pavements. Your car insurance will be more expensive too.

If you're a newly qualified driver, you're only allowed to rack up six points in your first two years of driving. So a public jaunt on a private e-scooter could end up costing you your license.

But provided you're happy only scootering on your own turf, there's no reason why you can't enjoy this lockdown trend.

Lockdown puppy boom impacts pet insurance prices

According to research by Propellernet, online searches for 'buying a puppy' have increased by 166%[*] now we're spending more time at home. This high demand means that pup prices have been on the rise.

The average price of a new dog increased from £534 in January to over £750 in July, when Coronavirus was at its peak. And the more expensive your dog, generally the more expensive your pet insurance.

A pet will have the same requirements when life gets back to normal after lockdown. So think carefully about the cost and time required for owning one.

Start your engines... Staycations are on the move

Motorhomes are convenient, a home-away-from home, no matter where you pitch up.

As staycationers turn to motorhomes to get their holiday fix, the volume of motorhome insurance quotes has gone up by more than 100% since this time last year.*

Make sure your motorhome insurance covers what you need it to and consider a policy that also covers the contents and your personal possessions.

Declare your car off the road with a SORN

If you're not using your car much, you might want to consider making a Statutory Off-Road Notification (SORN).

It's illegal to own an uninsured vehicle, so a SORN is the only legal way you won't need to pay tax and insurance.

Whilst insurance isn't a legal requirement for a SORNed vehicle, accidents can still happen and without insurance you won't be covered for fire or theft. Policies can last for six or 12 months.

Head to our website if you want more information on a SORN or the types of cover available to you.

We participate in account update services. As part of Visa® and MasterCard® programs, banks may notify us of updated credit card expiration date(s) and/or card number(s), which will automatically update your payment information in our system and allow us to attempt to renew your product(s) as scheduled. If paying with American Express, auto-renewal on an expired/re-assigned card may be automatically billed by American Express using the new expiration date and/or card number without notification to us. Similar services may be supported by other card brands. If attempts to bill your credit card are unsuccessful, your product(s) will expire. To update your credit card information, or to change your automatic renewal status, please log in to your account.

We will automatically renew the above product(s) on the renewal date and charge the credit card you have associated with each product. If the credit card associated with each product has expired or been closed, we cannot automatically renew the product and your product(s) will expire. We may be notified by banks of updates to your expiration date and/or card number, allowing for successful product renewal. Some card brands may automatically bill the new credit card without notification to us. To update your credit card information, or to change your automatic renewal status, please log in to your account.

NOTE: Our free product credit policy has been updated – see Section 9 of our Universal Terms of Service for more details. In the event that the Credit is redeemed, after the initial free one year period, the free product will automatically renew at the then-current renewal price until canceled. Dynamic DNS Account Configuration

- 1 Login to your No-IP account.
- 2 Create a hostname (example: yourname.ddns.net)

This hostname will be the URL you will use to connect to your device from anywhere.
- 3 Download and Install the Dynamic Update Client \(DUC\).

This software is only needed if your router or device does not have No-IP as an integrated Dynamic DNS provider. (What is an integrated Dynamic DNS provider ?)

After installation, you will need to login to the DUC and configure it to update the hostname you added in Step 2. (Windows DUC Instructions , Mac DUC link Instructions , & Linux DUC Instructions)

- 4 If you are behind a router or firewall, you will need to open and forward the correct ports for the services you wish to run.

Port Forwarding Guides

Not sure which ports to forward? Check out this list of common ports and what they are used for.

Device Configuration Assistant

Not sure how to set up your account or your hostname on your own?

Response sent via email

Dear Mr Cordell,

Re: Vexatious and Unreasonable Complaints

Further to the letter we sent you on the 27th June 2019 (copy attached), we are writing to confirm that we will be extending the single point of contact for another 12 months from the date of this letter.

During the past 12 months, you have failed to follow the single point of contact detailed in the original letter and on the 23rd June 2020, you phoned the council, repeating the same issues you have previously raised, despite having been told in previous correspondence these would not be dealt with.

We reaffirm the information given to you in June 2019 that Council Officers have spent copious amounts of time on your contact which detracts from the Council being able to conduct its business effectively.

We hereby conclude that the Council's Community Safety Unit will no longer respond to your repetitive correspondence. Any further contact received will be placed on file and coordinated through a single point of contact until such time as the current situation is concluded and the volume of letters becomes reasonable. This includes correspondence from other family members acting on your behalf. The Council had received contact from your mother where issues were repetitive to what you have raised. We have explained to your mother that the Council cannot continue to respond to various parties on the same matters and that going forward we will be following the arrangement put in place whereby issues are solely raised by you to your single point of contact.

In relation to the arrangements outlined here for a single point of contact, may I remind you that the Council does not tolerate offensive and inappropriate behaviour. We therefore ask that you reflect on such behaviour and stop contacting the Council officers in such a manner.

The medium of contact that you should use to correspond with the Council for future requests should be by email only and through your single point of contact who will be Karen Hale. These restrictions will be in place for a year and will then be reviewed accordingly. Should you wish to appeal this decision to restrict your contact, please contact Karen Hale, Complaints and Access to Information Manager at: complaintsandinformation@enfield.gov.uk within 20 working days of this letter.

Dear Mr Cordell,

Re: Vexatious and Unreasonable Complaints

We write to bring to your attention our concern regarding the volume of your contact, your repetitive complaints raised and the occasionally threatening tone of your telephone correspondence. Most recently, you spoke with the Chief Executive's office on 6 June and were abusive during the call.

The Council is of the view that the aspects of your correspondence are deemed as being unreasonable complainant behaviour. Unreasonable and unreasonably persistent complainants are those complainants who, because of the nature or frequency of their contacts with an organisation, hinder the organisation's consideration of their, or other people's complaints.

We have concluded your contact is vexatious for the following reasons:

This is not an exhaustive list but examples of unreasonable actions and behaviour which can be deemed as vexatious:

- You have sent frequent and overlapping correspondence on this same matter. Your contact is disproportionate and have or are likely to cause an unjustified level of disruption, irritation or distress.
- You are making excessive demands on the time and resources of staff with lengthy phone calls, emails to numerous council staff, or frequent emails / letters to staff.
- Submitting repeat contacts which have been addressed, essentially about the same issues, with additions/variations which the complainant insists make these 'new'.
- Refusing to accept the decision; repeatedly arguing points with no new evidence.

Council Officers have spent copious amounts of time on your contact which detracts from the Council being able to conduct its business effectively. We hereby conclude that the Council's Community Safety Unit will no longer respond to your repetitive correspondence. Any further contact received will be placed on file and coordinated through a single point of contact until such time as the current situation is concluded and the volume of letters becomes reasonable. This includes correspondence from other family members acting on your behalf. The Council had received contact from your mother where issues were repetitive to what you have raised. We have explained to your mother that the Council cannot continue to respond to various parties on the same matters and that going forward we will be following the arrangement put in place whereby issues are solely raised by you to your single point of contact.

In relation to the arrangements outlined here for a single point of contact, may I remind you that the Council does not tolerate offensive and inappropriate behaviour. We therefore ask that you reflect on such behaviour and stop contacting the Council officers in such a manner.

The medium of contact that you should use to correspond with the Council for future requests should be by email only and through your single point of contact who will be Dionne Grant. These restrictions will be in place for a year and will then be reviewed accordingly. Should you wish to appeal this decision to restrict your contact, please contact Dionne Grant, Complaints and Access to Information Manager at: complaintsandinformation@enfield.gov.uk within 20 working days of this letter.

Yours sincerely

Jeremy Chambers
Director of Law & Governance
