

Simon; yes;

Police Officer; you are innocent until you get proven guilty you can walk where ever you want.

Simon; I have got fifteen of the highest ranking officers yes, that have sat there at a table and manufactured the evidence and fabricated it together yes, they, under article.

Police Officer; who would go and do that.

Simon; under article three of my Human Rights it states that it is inhuman.

Police Officer; why would they do that.

Police Officer; why would they do that, why would they do that?

Police Officer; would fifteen high level police officers be interested in you.

Simon; I got the paper work here to prove that has happened yes and to prove.

Police Officer; what you need to do is bring it to court in September and prove it there talking to me on the phone is not going to change anything

Simon; but, but, I would like to know who oversees, I would like to see who oversees PC Steve Elmore's work, because he clearly.

Police Officer; where does PC Elmore work.

Simon; PC Elmore is attached to Edmonton police station.

Police Officer; OK then that would be the commanding borough commander of Edmonton then won't it.

Simon; yes;

Simon: Only the commanding borough of Edmonton?

Simon; now I have written an article six in, which is about the rights to a fair trial yes.

Police Officer; Absolutely;

Simon; I proved in that article six: — the time stamps, I time stamped every thing I time stamped every time stamp that went backwards every geological location; I proved all the things.

Police Officer; so why are you telling me this.

Simon; Because you signed up to protect us, the people.

Police Officer; why did I?

Simon; your wages are there to protect me and my friends and.

Police Officer; no, no listen, I don't understand why you are ringing me, it's going to court you have got your evidence, you have got your solicitor and you have been to the Ippc, you just want to argue.

Simon; because I want a police officer to, I want a police officer, because this police officer has now gotten told to go away and UN retract every thing in the book's that he forged alongside with the other officer's and to hand it in.
