Condition 21. You must not abuse, harass, make offensive comments and/or malicious allegations, use or threaten to use violence against any of our officers or agents, or against a councillor. This applies at any time and in any place. We may report the matter to the Police.

If you fail to keep this tenancy condition, we will support our officers if they refuse to interview you, visit you, or speak to you on the telephone. We may also refuse you entry to our offices and take legal action against you.

2.3 Use of premises

Condition 22. You must live in your property and use it as your only or main home.

If you are to be away from your home for a continuous period of more than a month, you should inform us. If you do not do so, we may think that the property has been abandoned and take action to recover possession of it. You must tell us how and where you can be contacted in case of an emergency.

If you move out of your property and allow someone else to live there, you will no longer be a secure tenant. We will take action to recover possession of the property by serving a Notice to Quit.

Condition 23. You must not allow your home to become overcrowded by other people living or staying there. You will not receive priority to transfer to larger accommodation under our Allocations Scheme if you do so.

Condition 24. You must notify us in writing, within 14 days, of any change, compared to those listed on your Tenancy Agreement, in the people who are living in your home. The notification must give:

- the person's full name, gender and date of birth
- the date of the change and
- whether s/he moved in or out of your home.

Condition 25. You are allowed to take in lodgers but must notify us in writing as required by Condition 24.

Introductory tenants are not allowed to take in lodgers.

Condition 26. You must not sublet or give up the whole of your property. If you do this, your secure tenancy may end. You may only sub-let part of your property with our prior written permission.

Condition 27. You can only assign your tenancy under certain circumstances which are described on page 19. You must have our written permission to do so.

Condition 28. You must not carry on or advertise any trade or business at your premises without our written permission and the necessary legal or planning requirements.

This Tenancy Agreement only gives you the right to use your property as a private residence. If we give written permission for you to use your property for business purposes, you must still meet any necessary legal or planning requirements for your business use. If your business causes nuisance or annoyance to neighbours or local residents, we can withdraw our permission.
