Good afternoon

I have chased up London Borough of Enfield as to what steps if any they have taken to restore the matter and will revert to you once they reply. We are on court record so should be notified by the Court Direct of any developments.

In the interim, it may be advisable to set up a royal mail redirection service and have post sent elsewhere. Not foolproof but worth considering.

Please do note that I am not a full time member of staff and am contracted to provide services to the Firm and so may not be dealing with my cases every single working day. If you are ever anxious about anything please give the office a ring and speak to Sean who is normally in.

Please try not to worry.

Kind Regards

Dear Ronak Ahmed

Today I called Enfield Country Court to make sure FOOED222 had been struck out for my son Simon Cordell, but what I have been told is Enfield Council has reopened it, the person at the court would give me no other information as I am not listed on the court record that I can be told anything.

My son has had no letters from the court as of yet and there is a real issue that he will not get any letters because his door was broken by the police and they had to put wood up so he has no where for the postman to post his letters, we know from a long time now also that the postman is just putting his letters in the hallway to his block and other people are taking his letters so I am worry that the court have sent his something but he had not had it, but I would have also through that seeing as you are the acting solicitors for my son for this case the court would have updated you I would have also through Enfield Council would have updated you regarding what they wanted to do, I spoke to Sean today and he has not heard anything at all.

Would it please be possible for you to make contract with the court and find out what is going on as I think this would be the better option to find out what Enfield Council is doing.

Regards

Lorraine Cordell
